Today

MAKE A difference in Northfield! Mentor under-resourced high schoolers with the TORCH program. Learn how you can get involved tonight at 8pm, Sayles 253.

NIGHT SKY lovers! Come to tonight’s 7 PM talk by naturalist, writer, professor Paul Bogard ’89, Bolioiu 104: “The End of Night.”

ELVIS IS in the Building! Celebrate Elvis’ birthday at LDC and Burton with a grilled peanut butter, bacon and banana sandwich

Evensong: Contemplative Christian Song and Prayer, 8:30pm, Chapel Main Sanctuary. Christian service with music readings, silence. All welcome. Led by Chaplain Carolyn Fure-Slocum.

A TASTE of Torah, 12:30pm at Tandem Bagels - Study led by Rabbi Shosh Dworsky.

Biology Comps: Molly Gallop, “A Gut Response: The Influence of Diet and Gut Microbes on Fat Storage.” Hulings 120, 10am. Everyone is welcome!

Thursday, January 9

Buddhist Meditation and Teaching led by Sri Lankan monk, Bhante Sathi, 8:00 p.m., Chapel Main Sanctuary. All are welcome.

Christian Compline Prayer Service, 9:00pm, Little Chapel (lower level, west side). Short service to end the day and put your mind at rest.

Shared Sacred Stories - 12:00pm, Chapel Lounge. Explore Hebrew scriptures and Quran tellings of Joseph/Yusef in a multi-faith setting. Texts/pizza provided.

Biology Comps Talk: Jonathan Knowles, “UPS degradation of IR and IRS in the development of Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus.” 1:00pm, Hulings 120. Join us!

Biology Comps: Ivan Duong, “Migration of Primordial Germ Cells and Proposed Origins of Extranodal Germ Cell Tumors.” Hulings 120, 9:00am. All are welcome!

Friday, January 10

Biology Comps: Hannah Happ, “Common sensing: the role of class-3 semaphorin/neuropilin signaling in trunk neural crest cells and metastatic tumor cells.” Hulings 120, 10:00am.

Jewish Shabbat Service - 6:15pm, Page House East. Led by students and followed by home-cooked dinner. ?? bahnj, stolli

Saturday, January 11

COME ENJOY root beer floats in Burton tonight for dinner

Sunday, January 12

Vagina Monologues auditions!!! No acting experience required - all are encouraged to audition! Email chowl to sign up for a slot.

Volunteer for Special Olympics Basketball! No experience necessary. Every Sunday, 2-3pm in Cowling. Email durantp if you can come!

Ethiopian and Eritrean Orthodox Christmas Vespers Service, 5:00pm, Chapel. Led by Father Zera Dawit Berhane. Soup supper after service.

Monday, January 13

COME START off your term right & join us for a low-key Christian worship service in the Chapel every Monday at 9pm!

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: FINDING a Mentor! 4:30 - 5:30, Leighton 305. Come listen to faculty and students about having a mentor at Carleton.

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: Leadership and Liberal Arts, 5:30 - 6:30, Great Hall. Jeff Appelquist ’80 will speak about liberal arts, career, and leadership.

“Between Democracy & Authoritarianism: The Middle East after the Arab Spring” by Eva Bellin, 7 pm, Library Athenaeum, sponsored by Political Science Dept, refreshments

Tuesday, January 14

Spring Concert Survey! Tell us what you would like to see this year. Submit at SAO website by 1/14 @ 5PM

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: You are not your major (Exploring Majors & Internships), 12:00 - 1:00, Leighton 305.

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: Majors Fair, 6:30 - 8:00, Great Hall.

Sayles Pasta Toss: It’s easy... choose your vegetables, protein and sauce - the chef with toss with pasta and enjoy! Lunch only from noon to 1pm

Biology Comps: Claire Milsted, “The role of Stochiometry in Forest Ecosystems.” Hulings 120, 9am. Please join us!

Biology Comps: Brendan Fowl, “Too much of a good thing: chronic activation of mTOR-1 complex leads to development of obesity and Type-2 diabetes mellitus.” Hulings 120, 1:00pm.

Wednesday, January 15

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: Finding a Fellowship, 1:00 - 3:00 with Associate Dean, George Shuffelton. Also on Thursday and Friday.

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: Sophomore Happy Hour! 4:00 - 6:00, Sayles 050 (Career Center). Brainstorm your way to the future.

Eating during stressful times... Nourish your body and mind. Visit Bon Appetit’s table at Carleton’s Winter Health Fair. 4:30-6:30 Great Hall
EXPLORE YOUR opportunities for Off-Campus Studies at the Worlds Fair! Chat with student and faculty program representatives. Free food! Great Hall, 11:30-1:00.

Friday, January 17

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: CCCE Sophomore Coffee Break, 9:30 - 11:00, Sayles 152. Come learn about ways to be engaged in the community.

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: FINDING a Fellowship, 4:00 - 6:00, Laird 133 with Associate Dean, George Shuffelton.

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: YEAR 2 Hullabaloo! 4:00 - 6:00, Great Hall. Leave your mark in the class of 2016 time capsule!

SOPHOMORPHOSIS: Isabelle Rivers-McCue, “Bacteria, Brains, and Babies: The Impact of Gut Microbes on Development.” Hulings 120, 1:30pm. All are welcome!

LIFELOGGERS: CHRONICLING the Everyday exhibition opens in the Perlman and the Weitz! Lots of artists. 7-9:30 pm. 7:20 curator tour; 8 pm “Umali Awards.”

GENERAL

LAGNIAPPES! COME to Student Activities and pick one up!

VAGINA MONOLOGUES 2014 is approaching! Missed the interest meeting? Email chowl for more info or to get on the email list!

STARTING NATIVE Interest Group: create a stronger Native American cultural presence at Carleton and consider contemporary Native issues, everyone welcome! email mchughh

APPLY TO be the 2014 Carleton Student Farm Intern! Applications available on the TUNNEL or at apps.carleton.edu/food/, deadline is THIS FRIDAY, January 10th.

NIGHTSHADE A cappella auditions in the concert hall, Saturday Jan. 11. Sign up lunchtime in Sayles Thursday and Friday or email matneyr.

TERM CALENDARS are available for winter term! Stop by the ASC (located on the top floor of Scoville) to pick one up!

ATTENTION SOPHOMORES: APPLY now for an all expense paid three day seminar in Gettysburg, PA during spring break. Learn more and apply here...

https://apps.carleton.edu/campus/camp/gettysburg/

LDC IS hosting a chili cook-off Jan 27. Put your chili cooking skills to the test. To sign up contact jpope@carleton.edu

MONEY AVAILABLE for an adventure or conducting research over summer or winter break 2014. Check out and apply for Carleton-funded Fellowships at http://go.carleton.edu/fellow.

STRUGGLING WITH time management? Need new studying tips? Start the term off right! Email gsimons in the Academic Support Center to arrange an appointment!

FOR SALE

ARE YOU a fan of The Clockwork Orange? I have a poster of it I’m not using. If you want it, let me know--mccleark.

LOST & FOUND

LOST TWO winter down coats (one white short NB brand; one long black new) on 1/5 on campus. contact yuc@carleton.edu, 347 319 0927 asap

LOST MY Carleton Track hat in Olin 04 or Olin 149. I’d love it back and will make you delicious baked goods! wilhelmk.

HOUSING

GRADUATING EARLY? Female roommate needed for two-bedroom apartment in Uptown Minneapolis for March-July. Current occupants are Carleton alums. Email sharyl.rich@gmail.com or call 617-721-3445.

::Useless Fact::

The climate-controlled Metrodome in Minneapolis is the only facility in the country to host a Super Bowl, a World Series and a NCAA Final Four Basketball Championship.
For Juniors* interested in travel or independent research during 2014 Summer & Winter Breaks

Fellowships Information Meeting
Wednesday, January 8, 2014
7:00 PM, Weitz 236

Learn about these Fellowships and how to apply for them:

- Class of 1963
- David C. Donelson '77 Fund
- Four Friends Fellowship
- Dale and Elizabeth Hanson (ethics)
- Independent Research
- Isaacs Wright (investigative journalism)
- Paul and Lynn Kelley
- Larson International
- Allen & Irene Salisbury
- Richard Salisbury
- Social Justice Internship
- Udall Scholarship

* First-Years and/or Sophomores are eligible to apply for several of these—see website for details.

http://go.carleton.edu/fellow
Leadership and Liberal Arts
Monday, Jan. 13 - 5:30-6:30pm • Great Hall

Jeff Appelquist ’80 will speak about the intersection of liberal arts, career success, and leadership. Jeff is the founder and president of Blue Knight Leadership, LLC. He is a former U.S. Marine Corps infantry officer, practicing attorney, and corporate executive. He has more than twenty years’ experience both as an entrepreneur and small business owner, and as a leader in Fortune 100 companies. He is also an award-winning author and nationally-recognized leadership expert. In this session, Jeff will also talk about how you can apply to be part of a spring break leadership retreat to Gettysburg. Dinner will be served – you must RSVP to careercenter@carleton.edu to attend.

Exploring Majors & Internships Workshop
You Are Not Your Major (Exploring Majors & Internships) Workshop
Tuesday, Jan. 14 @ Noon-1:00pm (Leighton 305)

Sophomores, are you: 1) trying to decide on a major? Or 2) wondering about internships? Two important issues all sophomores need to address are choosing a major and starting to think about internship options. Come learn more from a panel of faculty and previous student interns about: how to pick a major; why internships are so important; and so much more. And if you thought you couldn’t afford to do an unpaid internship, learn about funds available from Carleton to make this possible for you! Pizza will be served. *Part of Sophomorphosis

30 Minutes with an Alum in
Students can sign up for one-on-one 30 minute sessions to ask the alum/parent questions about his/her job. Reserve your time slot, login to the Tunnel off the Career Center’s site.

Week 1
Fri. 1/10 Jordan Epstein ’10, Founder/CEO at Stroll, a mobile application placing out-of-pocket healthcare costs in the hands of doctors and patients in San Francisco, CA. 12:30-4:30 pm (8 slots)

Week 2
Tues. 1/14 Heidi Welsh ’88, Co-Founder/Executive Director, Sustainable Investments Institute, which provides online tools and reports to help investors to make informed decisions on social and environmental shareholder proposals and conducts related research in Boonsboro, MD. 2:00-4:30 pm (5 slots)

To RSVP for any of these events, login to the Tunnel, click on the "Events" tab and within that tab select "Information Session" or "Workshop." Here you will see all the upcoming events the Career Center is sponsoring/hosting!