Join Northfield Reads to Discuss Immigration!
Northfield Reads is a community initiative that brings people of all ages and backgrounds to talk about a particular issue. This year’s topic is Immigration and the chosen book is Enrique’s Journey. Copies of the book are available to borrow in the CCCE office and to buy at Content Bookstore downtown.

The main event/discussion is taking place on Monday, April 13th at St. Dominic’s Church from 7-8:30 pm. Hope to see you there!

Come celebrate Earth Day with fellow Carleton students, St Olaf students, and the Northfield Community!

The event takes place Saturday April 18th.

First, register online for as many skill-sharing workshops as you wish. These include cheese making, lip-balm making, bike maintenance, forest restoration, home brewing, an introduction to aquaponics, and more.

Register at this link: http://transitionnorthfield.org/edayworkshops/

Then, come to the Weltz starting at 4:30pm for entertainment and a soup dinner/community potluck.

If you’re also looking for fun events on Friday, April 17th:
Come to the Northfield Area Community Solar “Sun Power Hour” from 5-7pm at the First UCC Church, 300 Union St. to learn more about community solar project.

You can also come to:
Northfield Contra Dance from 7-10:30pm at the Northfield Armory on April 17th!

Come hear about the CCCE’s Alternative Spring Break trips!
This break, 19 students went to Wolf Ridge Environmental Learning Center to learn about cold-weather sustainable farming, and to Waterloo, Iowa to work with Habitat for Humanity.
Stop by LDC 104 this Tuesday, April 14th, 12pm-1pm, to hear about the trips.

The Rice County Mental Health Collective has an internship opportunity for anyone looking to gain hands on experience in the mental health field. The group focuses its work around mental health promotion and prevention interventions in addition to projects to expand and improve treatment and care.

If you are interested in applying, send an email to Kelly Scheuerman, kscheuer@carleton.edu, indicating why you are interested in this position along with your resume by Monday, April 13th. We will contact you by April 15th if you have been selected for an interview.

Join CCCE staff and volunteers for delicious donuts and fresh-brewed coffee in our office from 9:30-11 on Friday morning. Sign up for programs and courses, or just come to see what the center is all about! Hope to see you there!

Growing Up Healthy is offering an exciting internship to work at the LINK Center this summer. Growing Up Healthy is a coalition of community organizations and neighborhood leaders who work together to improve the level of community connectedness experienced by marginalized families in Rice County. The LINK CENTER serves as a community space that connects people with resources in Northfield and across Rice County, including health, legal, food, housing, Adult Basic Education, and City/County services. The internship will involve a combination of both Link Center and Growing Up Healthy responsibilities.

If you are looking to apply, please send an email to Kelly Scheuerman, kscheuer@carleton.edu, indicating why you are interested in this position along with your resume by Monday, April 13th. We will contact you by April 15th if you have been selected for an interview.

Volunteer to perform at 3 Links on Saturday afternoons.
All types of performances welcome!
