TALK WITH filmmaker Cecilia Barriga (Chile/Spain) at her lecture: “Film as an Instrument of Sociopolitical Change” 12pm Athenaeum

You are on a horse, galloping at a constant speed. On your right is a sharp drop off, and on your left is an elephant thundering along at the same speed as you. Directly in front of you is a galloping kangaroo and your horse is unable to overtake it. Behind you is a lion running at the same speed as you and the kangaroo. What must you do to safely get out of this highly dangerous situation?

Answer in Wednesday’s NNB

In 1907, following several years where women applied to Carleton in much greater numbers than men, and the student body had become as much as 55% female, Carleton put out an urgent appeal for “boys.”

::Riddle Answer::
A bus driver was heading down a street in Colorado. He went right past a stop sign without stopping, he turned left where there was a “no left turn” sign and he went the wrong way on a one-way street. Then he went on the left side of the road past a cop car. Still - he didn’t break any traffic laws. Why not?
Answer: The bus driver was walking

Arboretum Event:
Postage Stamp Prairie
Saturday, Oct. 17th from 9 AM-12 PM.
Did you know that one of the most important areas in the Arb is a tiny 1/4 acre prairie? Come learn about Carleton’s Postage Stamp Prairie and help remove invasive species from it. Volunteers will meet at the bridge near the tennis courts, just below the Arb entrance at Second and Oak streets. Long pants, long sleeves and closed toed shoes are recommended.

Arboretum BioBlitz
October 20th, 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM
Are you interested in environmental issues, conservation, the outdoors, biology, education, or working with kids?
This free field trip will bring approximately 100 local elementary students into the Arb to experience environmental science “in action.” No experience is necessary to volunteer either on the day of the event or help plan logistics and curricula.
Contact: Anna Guasco (guasco)

2015 Regional Organizing Event at Macalester College:
10/17 and 10/18
Macalester is hosting one of seven national week-long organizing trainings and are inviting Carleton students to join.
“Students across the country are joining the fight, launching campaigns to demand living wages, safe workplaces, the freedom to join unions, lower tuition, education justice . . . and more!”
Contact: Arianna Feldman (Arianna.feldman@gmail.com)
