Opportunities

Local Election Info!!

Are you familiar with the many local races that will be on the ballot come November? Want to meet the candidates who may end up deciding Northfield’s future?

Join us on Thursday, October 30th from 7:00-8:00pm in Bolio 104 for a public forum with all your local city council candidates. Audience members will have the ability to submit questions during the forum and hear how potential City Councillors would respond to issues that are important to them.

There will be four candidates present from the two contested city council races in town. Running for the Ward 1 City Council position will be Joe Gasior and Incumbant Suzie Nakasian. Running for an At-Large City Council position will be Dale Gehring and Incumbant Rhonda Pownell.

This will be a great way to catch up on Northfield politics and prepare yourself for the upcoming election. Hope to see you there!

Schools of Public Health Panel

Thursday, October 30th
12-1pm
Leighton 304

Lunch will be provided for the first 35

Five representatives from the University of Minnesota School of Public Health along with Carleton alum Amenah Agunwamba ’05 will lead a panel discussion about how you can prepare the best application and what you can do with a degree in public health, as well as their own educational and professional paths.
