::Carleton Fun Fact::
The NNB started as radio station KARL’s “Noon News Bulletin,” featuring real world news blurbs that came in over KARL’s teletype machine.
Welcome back to campus!

We invite you to stop by the Office of Off-Campus Studies. Whether you know exactly when and where you want to study off campus or have no idea, the OCS office is the place to start.

Advising appointments are available Monday through Friday between 1PM and 5PM.
To schedule a 30-minute appointment, call x4332 or email rquanbeck.

Watch the NNB, the digital signage and the bulletin boards around campus for announcements of upcoming 2015-16 Carleton OCS interest meetings and campus visits from non-Carleton OCS program providers. And be sure to attend the Introduction to Off-Campus Studies at Carleton meeting on Thursday, October 9, 7PM in Leighton 305!

WHAT IS THE CCCE?

The CCCE (often called the trip-C-E) stands for the Center for Community and Civic Engagement. Our Center encourages Carleton students to learn through community partnership; we coordinate one-time events, ongoing volunteer programs, and student AND faculty community-based research through ACE courses. Our staff and student leaders work on 7 main issue-areas: Arts & Humanities, Community Development, Education, Energy & Environment, Food, Public Health, and Political Engagement.

Learn more at our website go.carleton.edu/ccce or stop by our office, Sayles 150 (right past the mailboxes). And LIKE us on facebook: facebook.com/CarletonCollegeCCCE.
