Peer Leaders at Carleton College

Carleton College employs hundreds of students in a variety of leadership roles. These student leaders are vital in providing important programs and services to the campus community. With the talent, energy, and spirit of Carleton’s student leaders, the College stands well-poised to provide a true liberal arts education that challenges students to “learn broadly and think deeply.”

Guided by the core values of social justice and inclusivity, the Peer Leader training program provides a collaborative campus-wide hub to prepare students to lead by giving them the tools, resources, connections, and skills they need in order to serve the Carleton community.

Program Assistant, Leadership and Intercultural Programs

This position serves as the main student lead from the Student Activities Office on topics related to leadership, involvement, ethics, communication, networking, civic engagement, diversity, cultural awareness, respect, empathy and creating a welcoming and inclusive campus environment. The Program Assistant in this position will work with the Student Activities, CSA organizations and various campus departments to develop and ensure that a diverse selection of leadership and intercultural programs and activities offered for the campus community. The position also act as the central campus resource to help students initiate, plan, fund and achieve their involvement goals, including working collaboratively with the Dean of Students Office in administering the Student Leadership & Involvement Grant.
