Student Learning Goals

CAMS majors should be able to:

- Demonstrate depth and breadth in their knowledge of the histories and theories of cinema and media.

- Demonstrate the ability to perform a formal/stylistic analysis of media texts.

- Make a thesis-driven argument supported by evidence in the text.

- Conduct research in cinema and media studies using primary and secondary sources and be able to evaluate the validity of those sources.

- Express ideas and present information using combinations of moving and still images, sounds and words.

- Demonstrate proficiency with the tools of digital media communication and expression.