Green Film Series @ Carleton – Winter Term 2007

A series of film presentations followed by facilitated discussion on a wide variety of green/environmental and sustainable development issues is being shown this coming term.

This series is open to all students, faculty, staff the local community and anyone who is interested in these issues.

Day: Tuesdays
Time: 7pm-9pm
Venue: Leighton 402

1. Environmental Justice/Racism - January 23rd
   - Toxic Racism

2. Animal Welfare/Rights - January 30th
   - Beyond Violence: the human-animal connection
   - Animal Care Matters
   - Meet your Meat

There will also be a showing of Al Gore’s Movie An Inconvenient Truth will be part of Carleton’s participation in the Campus Climate Challenge week of Activism (week beginning Jan 29th –Feb 2nd).

3. Green Politics and Activism I- February 6th
   - Testify!

4. Eco-feminism/Women and Environment - February 20th
   - Butterfly: Movie about Ecofeminist activist Julie Butterfly-Hill

5. Green Politics and Activism II – February 27th
   - Affluenza: Consumerism

6. Green Politics and Activism III - March 6th
   - No Logo
   - Another world is possible

For more information, please contact Dr. John Barry, Dept of Political Science, jbarry@carleton.edu