SWA Expectations

General Expectations
- Refrain from behaviors that may lessen your credibility as a SWA.
- Choose your attitude.
- Be a positive role model for your peers.
- Maintain a Facebook/MySpace profile that is consistent with SWA goals.
- Be flexible.
- Work to get to know everybody on your dorm.
- Establish an inclusive community where all people feel comfortable.
- Be willing to challenge yourself.
- Serve as a resource for all residents on campus.
- Approach residents and present information in a non-judgmental way.

Communication
- Listen respectfully to others in group settings.
- Check your email and voicemail at least once per day and respond to messages within 48 hours.
- Keep Chloë and the PAs in the loop with any issues you are having with your dorm, your co-SWA, and your role as an SWA.
- Maintain an open and positive relationship with other groups on campus such as other peer leaders, campus security, and residential life.
- If you are involved with a disciplinary incident on campus inform Chloë as soon as possible.

Administrative Responsibilities
- Complete all online forms and paperwork in a timely manner.
- Attend all PA meetings, staff meetings, co-SWA meeting, study breaks, and other mandatory events.
- Inform Chloë and the PAs if you are unable to attend a meeting for a legitimate reason. Excessive absenteeism may result in suspension from the SWA program.
- Be respectful of departmental resources.

Personal Wellness
- Remember that you have a support network and you are not responsible for addressing any issues alone.
- Be sure to take time for yourself when you need it.
- Utilize Chloë and the PAs for advice, venting, brainstorming, and problem-solving.

Personal Development
- Work to educate yourself on wellness topics you are less knowledgeable about.
- Make an effort to improve on skills such as public speaking, facilitation, conflict management, mediation, and counseling.
