Becca Giles '15, Student Assistant

Becca Giles is a current sophomore and a potential Political Science Major. Becca hails from Eau Claire, Wisconsin and, like any respectable cheese-head, is a diehard Packer fan. She spent her summer working as a camp counselor in northern Wisconsin, visiting fellow Carls in the New York area and backpacking in Wyoming's Wind River Range. At Carleton, Becca enjoys playing frisbee, participating in Model United Nations and serving as College Council Liaison for the Carleton Student Association. In the future, Becca hopes to travel the world, become a professional yogi and start her own food cooperative, where she would sell home-brewed kombucha and engage in friendly conversation with "the locals."
