The M. Leith Shackel ’29 Internship Endowment Fund provides stipends for first year, sophomore, and junior students who pursue unpaid or low-pay summer internships.

PROFILES OF RECIPIENTS AND HOST ORGANIZATIONS

Laura Henry ’13, American Studies
Hometown: Louisville, KY
Laura worked as an English as a Second Language tutor at the Kentucky Refugee Ministries in Louisville, KY, five mornings a week. Her tasks included working one-on-one with students, conducting in-testing and out-testing for students to determine their level of English proficiency, and substituting for teachers in the classroom as needed.

Jonathan Lin ’13, English
Hometown: New Territories, Hong Kong
Jonathan’s internship at the James Martin Center for Nonproliferation Studies in Monterey, CA, allowed him to do policy research. He was able to attend graduate seminars and lectures held at the institute throughout the summer, in addition to meeting with scholars and experts in the field and learning from their experience in the international arena.

Ellie Schmidt ‘14, Studio Art
Hometown: Denver, CO
Ellie interned with JD Jorgenson, a wood-fire potter in St. Joseph, MN. She helped with day-to-day work in the studio, including mixing glazes, processing clay, and wood firing. She also had the chance to work on her own projects and so develop her own portfolio.
