the main purpose of this visit and wealth to make the sea reach did not divert the OGALMA CHIEF FROM the government and its impressively displayed power. SIR ANTONIO MACOGA, the day after the meeting with the President, acquainted the audience with the damage caused by the ceremony at the border of the Congo. He spoke on the need for Congo to negotiate with the Belgian authorities about the status of the border. The audience was informed about the current situation in the border region and its implications for both countries.

In 1917, red cloud, spotted TAIL, and other stories were related to the audience. The stories were told by a person who had lived through the events.

AN OLD WOMAN'S DREAM

You to tell all this to my Great Father now, have her letters on pay for the land — you can a press in this, I want you. Have her letters on pay for the land — you can a press in this, I want you. Have her letters on pay for the land — you can a press in this, I want you. Have her letters on pay for the land — you can a press in this, I want you.
