

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF LACTANTIUS

COMPILED BY JACKSON BRYCE

MARJORIE CRABB GARBISCH PROFESSOR OF CLASSICAL LANGUAGES & THE LIBERAL ARTS CARLETON COLLEGE, NORTHFIELD, MINNESOTA, U.S.A.

Second revised version, August, 2007

This revision and updating of the bibliography, some 35 years in the compiling, is offered in celebration of the fifteenth quadrennial International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford in August of 2007. Among other items, it incorporates works noted in Année Philologique through volume 75 (2004). Some 100 new items, colored blue, are included in this revision, as well as a number of corrections; many thanks to correspondents from around the world who have made suggestions. It is provided in four parts, as follows, each with its own web page.

I. BIBLIOGRAPHICAL WORKS

II. EARLY EDITIONS TO 1700

III. EDITIONS FROM 1700, PLUS COMMENTARIES AND TRANSLATIONS OF ALL PERIODS.

IV. SCHOLARLY LITERATURE

The following sigla are used throughout:

SIGLA	WORKS FOUND IN MSS AND EDITIONS OF LACTANTIUS
AP	De Ave Phoenice
AS	Aenigmata Symposii
CD	St. John Chrysostom, De Cæna Domini in a Latin version by Hieronymus Donatus
DI	Divinae Institutiones
EDI	Epitome Divinarum Institutionum
acEDI	the acephalous EDI, beginning with ch. 51 [56], Nam si iustitia
ID	De Ira Dei
MA	fragment de Motibus Animi
MP	De Mortibus Persecutorum
OD	De Opificio Dei
PD	De Passione Domini
PT	Adhortatio Philippi ad quendam Theodosium Iudæum
RD	De Resurrectionis Dominicæ Die (Salve, festa dies) , ascribed to Venantius Fortunatus

acRD	an acephalous version of RD beginning at the verse Tempora florigero rutilant ...
TS	Tertullian, Sermo de Vita Æterna
TA	Tertullian, Apologeticus
VM	Lorenzo Valla, De Mystero Eucharistiæ

The following subtitles for the seven books of DI are often found:

- I. DE FALSA RELIGIONE
- II. DE ORIGINE ERRORIS
- III. DE FALSA SAPIENTIA
- IV. DE VERA SAPIENTIA ET RELIGIONE
- V. DE IUSTITIA
- VI. DE VERO CULTU
- VII. DE VITA BEATA

In addition to these sigla, certain symbols are used:

∑ marks summaries, found mostly in L'Année Philologique [APh] but occasionally in other sources.

☞ marks annotations provided by the compiler; they are intended not to be critical, but only to clarify what the item is about. The presence of ☞ indicates either that the compiler has read the item, or has been able to learn about it from what seemed a reliable source; its absence may mean either that there is no further information, or that its title is clear enough to require no further assistance.

® indicates scholarly reviews.

Items in blue letters are new to this revision.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The compiler would like to acknowledge the staffs of the Gould Library at Carleton College, Widener Library at Harvard University, Mullen Library at the Catholic University of America, Wilson Library at the University of Minnesota, the Regenstein Library at the University of Chicago, the Public Library of the City of New York, and most especially the Bodleian Library in Oxford University, where the greatest part of this work has been done. It is a particular pleasure to name a few staff of Bodley's Lower Reading Room and Classics Reading Room, who have patiently and with extraordinary competence endured incessant orders and queries: Jacqueline Dean, Elizabeth Fisher, Christine Mason, and Mary Sheldon-Williams. Other Oxford librarians have also been very helpful: Philippa Taney at the Ashmolean, Dr. Penny A. W. Bulloch at Balliol, Matthew Phillips at Christ Church, Sarah Newton at Corpus Christi, Sally Speirs at Magdalen, and Adrian Hale at Wolfson. The Oxford University Early Printed Books Project is a remarkable resource in need of support: please visit its enticing web page at <http://www.lib.ox.ac.uk/icc/>. Carroll Hightower of the Carleton College

Academic Computing and Networking Service initiated me into the arcana of web page production; Professor Oliver Nicholson of the University of Minnesota has been an unfailing source of references, encouragement, and good advice; Jean Hayes has put this and the previous revisions on the Web. Finally, Professor Herbert Bloch of Harvard University first proposed my study of Lactantius and has nourished it for more than thirty years. To all of you, many, many thanks.

A work such as this cannot fail to exhibit errors and omissions. All who use these pages are earnestly entreated to send corrections to the compiler by e-mail to <jbryce@carleton.edu>. The following colleagues from around the world have offered suggestions for revisions of the Bibliography: Pascal Boulhol, Tomas Bájuš, Burkhart Brückner, Christopher Crockett, Uffe Christensen, Stefan Freund, Gábor Kendeffy, Stanley Long, Drew Maxwell, Bernhard Miedt, Oliver Nicholson, and Roger Pearse. Time to do the revision came during a sabbatical leave generously provided by the President, Dean, and Board of Trustees of Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota. The Bodleian Library of Oxford University still proves to be a place where one can cite almost everything at first hand.
