Senior Spotlight: Sarah Trautman

1) If you could take the place of a character in a novel, who would you be and why? I would be Alice, in Alice in Wonderland. I like trying to figure out where I am.

2) What is the single best English class you’ve taken at Carleton and why? Shakespeare I, because it made me realize that I like a whole other era and genre of English literature!

3) Tell us something that most of the other English majors don't know about you. Most English majors probably don't know that I spent this past summer living out of my car and learning to love gas station coffee.

5) Six words describing your experience as a Carleton English major: Started off fun, kept getting funner.

LITERARY CRIBS

Whose house is this? Email the name of the lucky landowner to whiter or lanec.

quote of the week

“Deign at my hands this crown of prayer and praise,
Weaved in my lone devout melancholy,
Thou which of good hast, yea, art treasury,
All changing unchanged ancient of days.”

STUDENTS! Call in to ext. 4322 with the author and work these last lines come from. The first person to correctly name the quotation with receive a package of cookies with a faculty signature.

No one caught the reference to Chaucer last week! Here's a hint for this week: sonnet crown
ART INSPIRED BY LITERATURE

Great literature and great art. Too much of a good thing is a good thing. Answers next week.

Fall 2013 Courses:
THE WORDLE

The least helpful but most exciting graphic representation of the (non A & I) courses offered in the English department next fall.

If you want actual information, go to ENROLL or ask the SDAs. Happy registration!