The History Department is pleased to announce

The 2009 Annual Carleton History Comps Panel Presentations

Wednesday, May 13, 2009, Leighton 304

Everyone welcome! Delicious refreshments!

Peter Gill
The Politics of Land Reform in Nepal, 1930-1964

David Harrisville
Strategy and Survival: Commanders, Crewmen, & the Sherman Tank in WWII

Liz Bonawitz
An Honest Englishman, of Good Plain Sense and Meaning? Or a Robust True-born Briton?
English Constructions of Englishness, Britishness & Scottishness, 1690-1740

Robert Hildebrandt
Enhancing the Material with the Spiritual: Tradition and Modernity in Iranian Lay Religious Intellectual Thought

Sara Lopez
Rebellion and Celebration in 18th C. Mexico: The Request for a Propaganda Fide Hospice in the Town of Uruapan

Lucy Robson
Reading Past the Label: Exploring Second World War Evacuation in Britain Through the Child’s Perspective

Ryan Oto
This Indian World: Oneida & Monhegan Strategic Uses of Christianity in Mid-18th C. British Colonial America

Alexander Persaud
Rodney, History, and the Dialectic: Rethinking Walter Rodney’s Marxist Methodology

Dominic Vendell