This Week in HISTORY

October 5, 1703, Jonathan Edwards, American evangelical religious leader, is born.
October 6, 1973, Egypt allied with Syria in a coordinated attack against Israel to reclaim land lost in the Six Day War of 1967. The Yom Kippur War started at 2:05 pm that day. More than 220 Egyptian warplanes flew over the Suez Canal and attacked Israeli command centres in the Sinai. "Operation Badr," soon to be known as the October War, had been launched.

October 7, 1765, The Stamp Act Congress convened in New York to draw up colonial grievances against England.

October 7, 1865, The Great Chicago Fire erupted. The blaze destroyed four square miles of the city, killing about 250 people and leaving some 90,000 homeless.

October 8, 1871, Latin American guerrilla leader Che Guevara was executed while attempting to incite revolution. Ernesto "Che" Guevara's body was photographed in a hospital laundry room in October 1967, after he was shot to death in Bolivia. Associated Press Photo, 1967
