Today in HISTORY!
1495- Birth of Sultan Suleiman the Magnificent.
1773- Parliament of Great Britain passes the Tea Act.
1810- Beethoven composes “Für Elise.”
1981: Xerox PARC introduces the computer mouse.

Upcoming Events:

Monday, April 27, 4:30 p.m., History Department Lobby, New Book Celebration Celebration for all History majors, faculty, and special friends of the history department. Please join us for refreshments and a toast!
- Serena Zabin, Dangerous Economies: Status and Commerce in Imperial New York, University of Pennsylvania Press

Department T-Shirt
We're now soliciting design ideas for this year's History Department t-shirt. Bring or email your witty, clever or creative ideas to Nikki in the History department by NEXT WEDNESDAY, April 29th. Please indicate the layout of the shirt (e.g., if you have a slogan, where will it go on the shirt?) and include any pictures/drawings are part of your design. Voting on designs will begin by the end of next week.

Thanks!

Your SDAs,
Emily Tragert and Josh O'Brien
Weekly History Crossword

Across
3. Island invaded by Turkey, 1974.
4. Historians’ name for the early nineteenth-century republic whose territory included modern Colombia, Ecuador, Venezuela, and Panama.
5. Chief editor of and contributor to the Encyclopédie.
7. This Japanese constitution was used as a model for the 1931 Ethiopian constitution.
10. The assassination of this president put Theodore Roosevelt in office.

Down
1. Saw the life of man in the state of nature as "solitary, poor, nasty, brutish, and short.
2. Henry VIII’s third wife.
3. Italian site of Henry IV’s penance before Pope Gregory VII (Winter, 1077).
8. “Magnificent” Sultan besieged Vienna in 1529.
12. First ruler of the Rus to convert to Christianity.
13. Founder of Achaemenid Persian Empire
14. Only SE Asian nation to never be ruled by a European power.
15. The “Pious” successor of Charlemagne.