This Week in HISTORY

November 2, 1930 – Haile Selassie is crowned emperor of Ethiopia.

November 3, 1903– Panama proclaimed its independence from Colombia.

November 4, 2008 – Barack Obama becomes the first African-American to be elected President of the United States.

November 5, 1872– Suffragist Susan B. Anthony was fined $100 for attempting to vote in a presidential election.

November 6, 1913– Mohandas K. Gandhi was arrested as he led a march of Indian miners in South Africa.

Upcoming Events

FREE PIZZA! History Dept SDA info office hours - see last page OF THIS NEWSLETTER for a fabulous FREE color printable poster by Sam Robson & Andrea Donahue, our great SDAs!!! Come enjoy FREE PIZZA with them & have fun at their TWO office hours, on different dates so everyone can participate - EVERYONE WELCOME!!! (Nov 5 AND ALSO Nov 9, SH253, 8-9 pm) Bring any ???'s you have about classes, the major, & the History dept, etc.

Tuesday, November 10: "Germany’s Friday the 13th: the Significance of November 9 in Modern German History," John Rodden of the University of Texas, Austin, to speak about the events connected to November 9 in modern German history. Athenaeum, 4:30pm.

Internships and Job Opportunities:

The Central Administrative Office of Legal Aid Services of Oregon (LASO) seeks a full-time project coordinator to assist with technology, website maintenance and grant management. Closes 11/6/09. Send resume and letter of interest to Suzannah Newman, aojobs@lasoregon.org, and e-mail nakamura@carleton.edu for more information.

The Council on Undergraduate Research hosts a Registry of Undergraduate Researchers. The purpose of this registry is to facilitate matchmaking between undergraduates who have research experience and a desire to pursue an advanced degree, with graduate schools seeking high quality students who are well prepared for research. Go to www.cur.org/ugreg/ to fill out a resume form.
INSTITUTE FOR HUMANE STUDIES

INTERNSHIPS:

www.TheIHS.org, DESCRIPTIONS of internships:

Public Policy Internships
Learn about public policy by interning at a state or federal policy organization. The Charles G. Koch Summer Fellow Program includes an opening weeklong policy seminar, an eight-week paid summer internship, a closing career skills seminar and weekly policy lectures. Choose from 70 organizations in Washington, DC, and State Policy Network think tanks across the United States. Be part of a fellowship of motivated, talented individuals seeking to advance liberty. Program includes a stipend and housing allowance. Apply by Jan 31. Learn more at www.TheIHS.org/publicpolicy.

Journalism Internships
Interested in journalism and passionate about liberty? Learn about print, broadcast or investigative journalism by interning at a newspaper, media network, or state-policy organization. The program includes a weeklong career workshop, a stipend, and housing assistance. Receive mentoring and job search assistance during and after your internship. Placements are available during the spring, summer, and fall. Apply for a spring placement by Nov 15 and for a summer placement by Jan 31. Learn more at www.TheIHS.org/journalism.

Production Internships
Discover the best production techniques. The IHS Production Internship Program offers paid internships at production companies making films, documentaries, online video programs, and more. The program includes a weeklong interdisciplinary IHS seminar featuring outstanding professors, a stipend, and a housing allowance. Applicants at all levels of experience are encouraged to apply. Placements are available during the spring, summer, and fall. Apply for a spring placement by Nov 15 and for a summer placement by Feb 15. Learn more at www.TheIHS.org/production.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Master of Fine Arts
IHS Film & Fiction Scholarships award up to $10,000 for tuition and expenses. Open to all students who will be pursuing an MFA full-time in the 2010-2011 school year. Apply by January 15. Learn more at www.TheIHS.org/mfa.

Humane Studies Fellowships
IHS Humane Studies Fellowships are awards of up to $12,000 for students researching the principles, practices, and institutions necessary for a free society. The program is open to graduate students, including journalism and law students, and outstanding undergraduates, who will pursue a degree full-time in the 2010-2011 academic year. Apply by December 31. Learn more at www.TheIHS.org/hsf.

IHS offers many other programs for students. Visit www.theihs.org to learn more.

AfterCollege Career Network Digest
http://www.aftercollege.com/content/career_resources

Career Center Events:
http://apps.carleton.edu/campus/career/

For Fellowships and Internships, see:
https://apps.carleton.edu/curricular/history/after/fellowships/

http://apps.carleton.edu/campus/career/

Get Published!

The Columbia Undergraduate Journal of History is currently soliciting submissions for their Fall 2009 issue. This is a great opportunity for undergraduates to have their work reviewed, edited, and potentially published. Contact Carolina Perez cujh@columbia.edu

The Journal of Undergraduate International Studies, a social science journal at the University of Wisconsin-Madison is extending the call for submissions for their Fall 2009 issue and seek high-caliber student work. Contact Amjad Asad, wijuis@gmail.com

Graduate Schools

One-Year Master of Arts in Latin American Studies at Stanford University- see next page for description!
Discover Latin American Studies through Stanford’s interdisciplinary curriculum, specialize in Political Economy, Culture & Society, or Environment & Ecology with a wide variety of elective courses. Work with distinguished faculty representing 23 departments, schools, and research centers on campus; take classes from Tinker Visiting Professors and collaborate with Visiting Scholars from Latin America. Applicants must be proficient in Spanish or Portuguese, and have experience in Latin America or Iberia prior to admission. Financial assistance available for U.S. and international applicants. Optional joint degree programs in Law (JD), Medicine (MD), or Business (MBA) Application deadline for the 2010-2011 school year: January 5, 2010. For information, including application requirements: http://las.stanford.edu Further questions: latinamerica@stanford.edu To apply: http://gradadmissions.stanford.edu

-----------------------------

The Department of History invites applications for the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) M.A. and Ph.D. programs for the 2010-2011 academic year from students interested in the North American West and Cultural/Intellectual History. http://history.unlv.edu/

To contact Carleton History Alumni about applying to grad schools visit:
https://apps.carleton.edu/curricular/history/after/graduateschool/

Full listings of all available jobs, internships, and grants are available on the Carleton History Department website at http://apps.carleton.edu/curricular/history/after/

Study Abroad

The Global Engagement Summer Institute- The Northwestern University Center for Global Engagement is opening up to non-Northwestern students a unique summer program in Bolivia, Nicaragua, India, and Uganda. Visit www.mycge.org to learn more.

New Link of Interest

SEAAdoc: Documenting the Southeast Asian American Experience - new site from the University of California, Irvine. http://seaadoc.lib.uci.edu/

If you have any links of interest we can add, please send them to nakamurl@carleton.edu, donahuea@carleton.edu, zimmerm@carleton.edu, or nlambert@carleton.edu

Alumni Updates

Carleton History Alumnus T. J. Stiles, ’86 has been named a finalist for the National Book Award in non-fiction for his 2009 biography, Cornelius Vanderbilt: The First Tycoon.

Additional information and a sampling of reviews can be found on TJ’s website, http://tjstiles.com/.
Marga Warnicke, ’97. MA in History with a Certificate in Museum Studies. University of Delaware in Museum Studies: I have managed the GMAT/GRE/LSAT test preparation program at Arizona State University, and can help majors prepare for the graduate school admissions tests as well as help them navigate the graduate school admissions process. I would be happy to speak to Carleton students or alumni about the standardized tests, general graduate school admission issues or my own graduate school work. I am now a second-year doctoral student in the School of Public Affairs at ASU pursuing a PhD in public administration. Marga can be reached at mwarnicke@gmail.com.

Please send alumni updates, photos, NEWS, to nlambert@carleton.edu - we love to hear from you!

---

This week:

Name This Historian!

Be the first contestant to submit the correct answer to this week’s trivia questions, and we’ll send you a dozen chocolate chip cookies from Late Night Cookies!

Send answers to: nakamurl@carleton.edu or donahuea@carleton.edu

---

History Trivia:

Congratulations to David Morehouse, ’79 (of Minneapolis) for winning last Newsletter’s history trivia challenge!
Junior Colloquium Puzzle

Unscramble each of the clue words.

Take the letters that appear in boxes and unscramble them for the final message.

"said, “History does not repeat itself. At best it sometimes rhymes.”
History Dept SDA Office Hours
for PEACE
Thurs Nov 5th, Mon Nov 9th
8-9pm, Sayles 253
Ask ?s about classes, professors, the major, whatever!
?s robsons or donahuea