

THE HISTORIAN

VOLUME 7, ISSUE 3 OCTOBER 19, 2012

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

- INTRODUCING THE DCC
- OPPORTUNITIES IN HISTORY
- FACULTY KUDOS
- UPCOMING EVENTS
- THIS DAY IN HISTORY
- FAVORITE FIVE

Give a Round of Applause for Our New DCC Members!!

Rachel Feinberg

Dylan Holck

Marina Herrera-Heintz

Charlie Rosenthal

Dylan Holck and Marina Herrera-Heintz have joined Charlie Rosenthal and Rachel Feinberg as the junior student representatives on the Department Curriculum Committee (DCC)!

If you have suggestions for courses that should be on the 2013-14 course schedule or ideas about how to make a curriculum that better represents your needs, contact any of the four DCC members.

For more information about what the DCC can do for you, check out the updated DCC page:

<https://apps.carleton.edu/curricular/history/major/dcc/>

OPPORTUNITIES IN HISTORY

Are you going to be in town for Winter break? Would you like to work as a Research Assistant for a Faculty Member in the History Department between Nov. 20-Dec. 20?

If you answered yes to both of those questions then email Nikki Lamberty, nlambert@carleton.edu, by Friday, October 26, to let her know that you are interested! You could be working approximately 20-25 hours per week!

KEEP CHECKING OUT THE CAREER CENTER'S 30 MINUTE CONVERSATIONS!

If you have missed the last couple weeks of the 30 minute conversations, don't fret! You still have more chances to talk to alumni about their careers.

You still have the opportunity to chat with alumni in the careers of Technology, Social Work/Philanthropy/Volunteerism, Architecture/Engineering, and Business!

For more information, go to: http://apps.carleton.edu/career/programs/30_minutes/students/schedule/

Sign up through the Tunnel under the Events tab

http://apps.carleton.edu/career/students/find_jobs/resources/tunnel/or come to the Career Center!

FACULTY UPDATES

Professor Susannah Ottaway's new article, "Women, Households and Independence under the Old English Poor Laws" was recently published as Chapter 4 in Female Economic Strategies in the Modern World. This collection of essays looks at the various ways in which women have coped financially in a male-dominated world and is edited by Beatrice Moring, Perspectives in Economic & Social History Series published by Pickering & Chatto, United Kingdom, August 2012: http://www.picker-ingchatto.com/monographs/female_economic_strategies_in_the_modern_world

Don't forget to "like" us on Facebook! Our Facebook Page is constantly updated and is your go-to source for information between newsletters, including interviews, pictures, job postings, its all there! Check out our newest photos from the Welcome Back Party last Tuesday!

<http://www.facebook.com/CarletonHistoryDept>

UPCOMING EVENTS

FRI. SEPT 14-NOV 14, WEITZ PERLMAN TEACHING MUSEUM KAEMMER FAMILY GALLERY - Remember to visit the two small exhibitions connecting Fall courses in History and French to art objects. History Professor David Tompkins special class event for his seminar “Visualizing Friends and Enemies in the Socialist World” will take place NOV. 1. For more information visit: go.carleton.edu/museum.

SAT. OCT 20, 1-4 PM WEITZ CENTER - THE CHALK SLAM lets faculty, students, & community members draw, doodle, calculate, articulate ideas, images, and energy on the vintage blackboards on the 2nd and 3rd floors of the former Northfield Middle School and HISTORY HAS A BOARD! Come participate & watch student groups, academic departments, visiting artists, Northfield youth, Oles & others from 1-3 pm; circulate & celebrate from 3-4 pm with light refreshments and live music. See you there!!!

TUES. OCT. 23, 7 PM, OLIN 149 - “Using Basic Science to Understand Some of Our 21st Century Energy Options” A Phi Beta Kappa lecture by Professor Sarah Keller, University of Washington.

THURS. OCT. 25, NOON, ATHENAEUM - What will be and can be the global role of the EU? Why will the EU never be able to play the role as a new super power? These questions and more will be answered by Former Danish MP and DIS Professor Jakob Busti. Pizza will be provided for the first 50 people.

THURS. OCT. 25, 4:30 PM, WEITZ 236 - Student Research Symposium and Celebration, followed by:

THURS. OCT. 25, 6:30 PM, WEITZ CENTER LOME - History Careers: PANEL, PATHS AND PIZZA! The six alumni participating on this versatile Careers panel, Hugh Brown '06, Christopher Snowbeck '94, Paige Anderson Bowen '00, Shana Crosson '87, Annaka Larson '06 and Caroline Church '08, were hand-selected by Bill North as each one can especially address your questions about his or her specialty. This excellent panel can help to answer your career questions including: Law and law school, Journalism, Public Health and policy, Public History and Museum Work, Education K-12, Non-Profits and Americorps. This will follow the student research celebration, so go from Weitz 236 over to the balcony area above Weitz Commons. Everyone is welcome!

Annaka Larson '06

Caroline Church '08

Christopher Snowbeck '94

Hugh Brown '06

Shana Crosson '87

Paige Anderson Bowen '00

THURS. OCT 25 - SUN. OCT 28 - Don't forget to attend SPLIT SECONDS, a new work being produced by the Carleton Players. SPLIT SECONDS is a comedy by play and screenwriter Michael Elyanow. The show is set in Stanford on the eve of the first Obama victory and the passing of Proposition 8 with a group of college seniors whose futures are inextricably linked with America's political and social realities. The show will be performed on THURS, FRI, SAT, OCT. 25 - 27 at 7:30 PM in the Weitz Center Theater. And on SUN. OCT. 28 at 2PM in the Weitz Center Theater. For more information about Michael Elyanow, visit his website: <http://www.michaelelyanow.com/> Tickets are free at: <https://carleton.tixato.com/buy>

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

October 19

1604- Kepler's Star: German astronomer Johannes Kepler observes a supernova in the constellation Ophiucus.

1814- London Beer Flood kills nine people.

1905- Tsar Nicholas II issues October Manifesto.

1931- Al Capone convicted of tax evasion.

1973- OPEC begins oil embargo.

1979- Mother Teresa awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

Top 5 Departments/Offices That Used to Be in Leighton

1. Geology
2. Chemistry
3. Classics
4. Modern Languages
5. Admissions

CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF HISTORY TRIVIA?

Then we have just the link for you, check out:

<http://www.funtrivia.com/crossword/index.cfm?cat=14>

for a variety of History crossword puzzles. ENJOY!