The Weekly Archive
Friday, October 17, 2008
Joshua O’Brien, Editor; Serena Zabin, Faculty Advisor

Today in HISTORY!

1091: Massive tornado hits the heart of London.

1814: London beer flood: Eight drown when 323,000 gallons of beer burst from a Tottenham Ct. Rd. brewery into the streets.

1931: Al Capone convicted of income tax evasion.

1941: First German submarine attack on an American ship during WWII.

News:

MPR Interview with Clarke Chambers, ‘43

A recording of an MPR interview with Clarke Chambers (Carleton ‘43 ; Professor Emeritus of the U. of Minnesota History Department) is available on the MPR website at http://minnesota.publicradio.org/display/web/2008/09/30/midday2/

The interview covers memories of growing up in southern Minnesota, the depression, World War II, and ends with a discussion of the Social Welfare History Archive at the U. of M.

The Chambers interview is preceded by an interview with UMD Professor of Medicine Art Aufderheide) and begins about 23 minutes in.

Student Winter and Summer Break Fellowships

By Liz Ciner, Associate Dean of the College

Class of 1963 Fellowships: The Class of 1963 Fellowship was established by gifts to the College from the Class of 1963 to provide an opportunity for qualified students to pursue intellectual or creative interests. This fellowship is also available during the school year for studies that would qualify as Independent Studies.

Independent Research Fellowship: The Independent Research Fellowship is awarded to enable qualified students to carry out independent research activities in any field taught at the college or to undertake projects in the creative and performing arts.

Paul and Lynn Kelley Fellowship: The Paul and Lynn Kelley Endowed Fellowship Fund was created to honor Paul and Lynn who have done a great deal to support and promote cultural understanding, including medical travels to Central America, years-long service to indigenous and tribal peoples, AIDS work, and much more. The fund is intended to support students with financial need who are doing research fellowships abroad. These fellowships may be in conjunction with senior comps, in collaboration with faculty, or a project of student interest.

Larson International Fellowship: The Larson International Fellowship is awarded to students who have a deep interest in international understanding and involvement. The fellowship fund enables students with leadership promise to have a significant international summer experience. The best “Larsons” have elements of adventure!

Allen and Irene Salisbury Student Fellowship:
The Allen and Irene G. Salisbury Fellowship is an endowed fund that supports student research fellowships in any field taught at Carleton or projects in the creative or performing arts. Preference is given to those studying any aspect of Nepal or Asia.

Richard Salisbury Student Fellowship: The Richard A. Salisbury Fellowship is an endowed fund that supports student research fellowships in any field taught at Carleton or projects in the creative or performing arts. Preference is given to those studying any aspect of Africa and Latin America.

---

Internship and Job Opportunities:

Dow Jones Newspaper Fund Summer 2009 Internships

The Dow Jones Newspaper Fund offers annual summer internships in business reporting, news, online and sports copy editing. DJNF will select up to 100 interns from a national pool of the best qualified college sophomores, juniors, seniors and graduate students. Each program provides free pre-internship training seminars on college campuses and weekly salaries starting at $350 for a minimum of 10 weeks. Interns who return to college full-time the following fall will receive $1,000 scholarships from the Fund. The deadline to apply is Nov. 1. Applicants will be notified of their status by late December.

Apply at https://www.newspaperfund.org. (Click on programs - then college internships - register as intern applicant.) Please contact Sue Bovbjerg (sbovbjer) in the Career Center to schedule the editing test for the online, sports editing and news editing programs. Tests take about 1 hour and must be taken by 10/29.

Rescheduled:

Brattle Group Info Session:

The Brattle Group (www.brattle.com) provides consulting services and expert testimony in economics, finance, and regulation to corporations, law firms, and governments around the world. They offer clients in-depth industry experience and state-of-the-art analytical techniques to help clients answer complex economic questions in litigation, develop strategies for changing markets, and make critical business decisions. Their principals are internationally recognized experts, and have strong partnerships with leading academics and highly credentialed industry specialists around the world. They were named among the Top 20 Best Firms for Diversity and Lifestyle in 2008 Vault Ranking and were recently selected as one of the 25 Best Small Companies to work for in America. The Brattle Group has offices in Cambridge, Massachusetts; San Francisco; Washington, D.C.; Brussels; London; and Madrid.

Abhinab Basnyat ’06 will be on campus next Tuesday, October 23, to host an information session regarding Research Analyst opportunities at The Brattle Group. The session will be in Sayles 251 at 8:00 p.m. He is collecting resumes; if interested, please submit your application via the Tunnel. The position is posted as: Research Analyst (June 2009 Graduates)

Please contact the Career Center, x4293, with any questions.
Aftercollege.com listings of positions and employers specifically interested in hiring Carleton College History students.
http://www.aftercollege.com/groups/listings.asp?id=160639133

Listings of all available jobs, internships, and grants are available on the Carleton History Department website at:
http://apps.carleton.edu/curricular/history/after/