

The Carleton College Department of Mathematics and Statistics anticipates hiring a Visiting Assistant Professor in Mathematics to begin September 1, 2017. This position is for one year with the possibility of renewal. Ph.D. in hand or imminent completion by that date is preferred. Teaching responsibilities will include five courses (spread out over our calendar of three ten-week terms), and the supervision of a small-group undergraduate research project.

Carleton is a highly selective liberal arts college with a student body of 1,900 located forty-five miles south of the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul. Our friendly eleven-member Department of Mathematics and Statistics resides in a modern building with excellent facilities. The faculty is passionate about teaching and active in scholarship. We strive for a supportive yet challenging environment for our students. We are particularly interested in applicants who will contribute to a vibrant college-wide culture of undergraduate research and who are committed to teaching a diverse student body.

Applicants should submit, through MathJobs, a letter of interest, graduate transcript, curriculum vitae, a statement about teaching in an undergraduate liberal arts environment, and three letters of recommendation. At least one letter should specifically address teaching experience. Electronic submission is preferred but materials may be mailed to Math Search, Department of Mathematics and Statistics, Carleton College, One North College Street, Northfield, MN 55057-4025. Inquiries may be e-mailed to mathsearch@carleton.edu. For further information about the department consult the Carleton mathematics website at <http://math.carleton.edu>.

Carleton College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, ethnicity, religion, sex, national origin, marital status, veteran status, actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age in providing employment or access to its educational facilities and activities. We are committed to developing our faculty to better reflect the diversity of our student body and American society. Women and members of minority groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

To ensure full consideration, all application materials should be received by March 1, 2017.