Music at Carleton

Fall 2012

Saturday September 29
8:00 pm., Concert Hall

The Laudie Porter Concert
BRENDA BRENNER, VIOLIN
KENNETH HUBER, PIANO

Brenda Brenner, violinist and former Carleton College faculty member, will return to campus to join her long-time pianist partner, faculty member Kenneth Huber, in a program of music by Stravinsky, Mozart, and Franck. Since leaving Carleton, Brenner has taught at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music where she is Associate Professor, but the duo has maintained their collaboration with concerts throughout the United States. Brenner will be back on campus on February 15 as Convocation guest to speak about her ground-breaking research teaching violin to first graders. Don't miss this rare opportunity to hear two of "Carleton's own."

Sunday September 30
2:00 pm., Weitz Center Theater
"Sound and Vision" Collaborative Concert
NICOLA MELVILLE, PIANO

Faculty pianist, Nicola Melville, will be joined by Carleton student artistic collaborators in dance, film, computer graphics, poetry, and visual art, to create a vibrant interdisciplinary experience. The music of Chopin and Debussy will be reinterpreted and juxtaposed with the always-surprising sounds of John Cage's Sonatas and Interludes for prepared piano; also featured will be recent works by New Zealand composers John Psathas and Gareth Farr, and American composer Kenneth Frazelle.

Friday October 5
