The Judith Ann Sosted ’61 Fund for Off-Campus Studies

Judith Ann Sosted ’61 established this fund to benefit female students participating in off-campus study programs. It is Ms. Sosted’s intent to assist with the financial obligations of studying abroad. Eligible expenses include those listed on the Off-Campus Studies Budget Worksheet or other personal expenses incurred during the regular program.

Ms. Sosted graduated from Carleton in 1961 with a degree in psychology. She holds masters degrees in both social work and education administration. She spent her career as a social worker for elementary and junior high school children. She is also an experienced traveler and a fearless creative person who is accomplished at woodworking, pottery making, and knitting. A generous and dedicated Carleton volunteer, Ms. Sosted has served as the Cannon Valley Alumni Club Chair and as her class’s Alumni Annual Fund Co-Class Agent for many years.

Qualifications
To qualify, you must:
- be a female student;
- be attending an off-campus study program during the 2012-2013 academic year; and
- be receiving need-based financial aid for the academic year in which you are attending the program and have accepted all parts of the award (including work and loans).

Application Process
1. Fill out the "Off-Campus Studies Budget Worksheet" which can be found at http://apps.carleton.edu/curricular/ocs/forms.
