Course Description:
Are Asian Americans forever foreigners or honorary whites? This class introduces you to the sociological research on Asian Americans. We begin by a brief introduction of U.S. immigration history and sociological theories about assimilation and racial stratification. We then cover research on racial and ethnic identity, educational stratification, mass media images, interracial marriage, multiracials, transracial adoption, and the viability of an Asian American panethnic identity. We will also examine the similarities and differences of Asian Americans relative to other minority groups when applicable.

Student Learning Outcomes:
The Department of Sociology and Anthropology has specified six student learning outcomes (SLOs) that we want students to acquire. In this course, our focus is on the following three:

✔️ Learning how to connect information about historical and contemporary socio-cultural phenomena;

✔️ Applying sociological theory to analyze socio-cultural phenomena;

✔️ Drawing upon your understanding of historical and contemporary socio-cultural phenomena to engage the world.

Required Course Materials:
Several journal, magazine, and newspaper articles can be downloaded from the course’s Moodle page. The following four books are also required, and they can be purchased from the Carleton Bookstore:

FREE Resources for Students
Take advantage of the FREE resources that will improve your educational experience!

Don’t forget about the Writing Center! Again, go early and often to take advantage of these resources. Trust me, after college, you will have to start paying for these things out of pocket so soak up as much as you can now!
http://apps.carleton.edu/campus/asc/writingcenter/

Get to know your professors! Carleton will pay for you to take two professors per term to lunch at the college dining hall. I imagine that this is an under-utilized perk of a your tuition dollars. Take advantage of it.

Academic Integrity
In line with Carleton’s policy on academic integrity, it is assumed that the student is the author of all coursework. Please refer to Carleton’s full policy for additional information or see me if you have questions. http://apps.carleton.edu/campus/doc/integrity/

Disability Services for Students
Carleton College is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodations should contact the Coordinator of Disability Services, Andy Christensen, at 222-4464 or anchrist@carleton.edu, to begin the process.

Attendance/Class participation/Respectful use of electronic devices

Just showing up to class is not sufficient. You are encouraged to speak up, raise questions and take risks. There is no such thing as a stupid question!

Students who are consistently tardy or miss three or more classes will forfeit their participation grade. I am a reasonable person so should you have an extenuating circumstance and the documentation to verify it (i.e. a note from a doctor, class dean, etc.), we can work something out.

It should go without saying but in addition to being present, students should refrain from inappropriately using electronic devices during class time.

The “default” participation grade is 5 out of 10, so students who actively and productively contribute to class will substantially increase their grades. Egregious absenteeism and tardiness will significantly affect your grade beyond participation points.
