2014-15 Convocations

Presenters:

50% women / 50% men
58% non-white (African American, Hispanic, Native American, Asian American, Pakistani)

Issues/Topics addressed:

- Agricultural Technology in Developing Countries
- American Foreign Policy in the Middle East
- Blackness in Slam and Spoken Word Poetry Communities
- Building Self-Esteem in Native American Youth
- Celebration of Mixed-Heritage Experience
- Civil Rights History
- Criminal Justice System
- Cross Cultural Experiences
- Diversity Education
- Documentary Filmmaking
- Educational Achievement Gap
- Empowerment of Girls
- Entrepreneurship
- Environment
- Experience of Being Gay as a Professional Athlete
- Fitness and Healthy Eating
- Food Policy
- Food Scarcity
- Forensic Science
- Future of Islam, Muslims, and the West
- Gender Equality
- Global Economy
- Identity
- Justice in the Workplace
- Latin-American Culture
- Mass Incarceration
- Media Representations of Feminism
- Music
- Oral Tradition
- Perspectives of American Muslims
- Psychology of Belief
- Public Health
- Quantitative Reasoning
- Racial Justice
- Reconciliation of Native and non-Native Communities
- Repurposing Tech Hardware for Developing Countries
- Restaurant Workers Exploitation
- Science History
- Superstition and Pseudoscience
- Sweatshops
- Traditional Indian Music and Dance
- Using Data for Social Change
- Using the Arts to Generate Dialogue on Differences
- Worker Rights in the Global Economy

2015-16 Convocations

Presenters:

58% women / 42% men
35% non-white (African American, Hispanic, Native American, Asian American, Iranian American, Cuban, Haitian)

Issues/Topics addressed:

- Academic Freedom
- Body Image
- Cancer Research
- Chemistry of Calm
- Civil Rights
- Documentary Filmmaking
- Eating Disorders
- Environment
- Food Scarcity
- Free Speech in the Digital Era
- Freedom of Expression
- Genomics
- Health
- Hip-Hop Culture
- History
- Hmong Culture
- Identity-Based Conflicts and Wars
- Immigration
- Integration of Mind and Body
- Journalism
- Justice for Haiti
- Law and Policy Related to the Internet
- Leadership
- Muslim-American Issues
- Native American Culture and Heritage
- Network Neutrality
- Pipeline Safety
- Politics
- Power of Storytelling to Impact Change
- Racial Justice
- Resilience in Response to Stress
- Responsible Citizenship
- Role of Education in Promoting Peace
- Science in Culture
- Sport Science
- Sustainability
- Technology
- U.S. – Latin America Relations
- U.S. – Mexico Relations
- Violence Against Women and Girls
- Women in Science
2016-17 Convocations

Presenters:

53% women / 47% men
57% non-white (African American, Hispanic, Native American, Asian American, Iraqi)

Issues/Topics addressed:

- Activism
- Anxiety and Depression
- Civic Engagement
- Civil Rights
- Community Organizing
- Compassionate Listening and Healthy Discourse
- Cross Cultural Experiences
- Cultural Appropriation
- Cultural Dimension of Science
- Domestic Violence
- Economic Justice
- Empowerment of Girls
- Entrepreneurship
- Food
- Healthcare
- History
- Human Trafficking
- Immigration
- Indigenous Cultures
- Mental Health
- National Disaster Response
- National Security
- Partisanship in Society
- Perceptions of Gender, Beauty, and Power
- Polarization in Politics
- Racial Justice
- Religion
- Representations of Black Masculinity
- Science Education for Underrepresented Groups
- Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) Education and Careers
- Sexual Assault
- Social Justice
- Stereotypes in Popular Culture
- Suicide Prevention
- Technology
- Terrorism
- Traditional Chinese Music
- War Experiences of Soldiers and Civilians

2017-18 Convocations

Presenters:

50% women / 50% men
30% non-white (African American, Hispanic, Native American, Asian American, Cuban) International: British, Australian

Issues/Topics addressed:

- Activism
- College Access for Underrepresented Populations
- Civil Rights History
- Comic Books
- Community Organizing
- Consumption Economy
- Criminal Justice
- Dialogue across Difference
- Ethnic and Cultural Identity
- Filmmaking
- Food Systems
- Global Poverty
- Globalization
- History
- Immigration
- International Anti-Corruption
- Journalistic Integrity
- Liberal Arts
- Literature
- Mass Incarceration
- Microfinance
- Neuroscience
- Outdoor Adventure
- Partisan Politics
- Physics
- Protest and Democracy
- Psychology of Evil
- Racism
- Redefining the American Dream
- Religious Stereotypes
- Robotics
- Social Justice
- Stress Causes and Effects
- Sustainable Development
- Wildlife Conservation