Monday, Jan. 20

Resume Writing Workshop for Sophomores and Juniors 6:00-9:00 • Sayles OSO (Career Center)
Workshop and office hours designed to help sophomores and juniors work on resumes, even starting from scratch! Make sure to reserve your spot on the Tunnel. Beverages and candy. http://apps.carleton.edu/career/students/

Tuesday, Feb. 18

Student Leadership Opportunities Fair 11:00-2:00 • Great Hall
Learn about the amazing leadership opportunities, both paid and unpaid, throughout campus for the 2014-15 academic year. Students are encouraged to bring their resume and stop by any of the tables to learn about leadership positions in which they may be interested. Refreshments.
Monda y, Jan. 13

“FINDING A MENTOR” 4:30-5:30 • LEIGHTON 305
What’s a mentor for and why would I want one? Come listen to faculty and students talk about what a mentor can do for you and how to cultivate those relationships that really make a difference! Cookies and hot drinks.

LEADERSHIP AND LIBERAL ARTS 5:30-6:30 • SAYLES 251?
Jeff Appelquist ’80 will speak about the intersection of liberal arts, career success, and leadership. Jeff is the founder and president of Blue Knight Leadership, LLC. He is a former U.S. Marine Corps infantry officer, practicing attorney, and corporate executive. He has more than twenty years experience both as an entrepreneur and small business owner, and as a leader in Fortune 100 companies. He is also an award-winning author and nationally-recognized leadership expert.

In this session, Jeff will also talk about how you can apply to be part of a spring break leadership retreat to Gettysburg. Dinner will be served—you must RSVP to careercenter@carleton.edu to attend.

TUESDAY, JAN. 14

“EXPLORING MAJORS AND INTERNSHIPS”
NOON-1:00 • LEIGHTON 305
Two important issues all sophomores need to address are choosing a major and starting to think about internship options. Come learn more about both at this session. And if you thought you couldn’t afford to do an unpaid internship, learn about funds available from Carleton to make this possible for you! Pizza will be served.

MAJORS FAIR 6:30-8:00 • GREAT HALL
Wondering what to major in? Confused about different concentrations? Everything you need to know is here. Student department reps (SDAs) and others will answer all your questions about majors, concentrations and special programs (e.g., pre-med). Refreshments.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 15

FINDING A FELLOWSHIP 1:00-3:00 • OFFICE HOURS WITH GEORGE SHUFFELTON, ASSOC. DEAN OF THE COLLEGE, LAIRD 133
There are many fellowship opportunities available for Carleton students. If you’d like to talk about options that might be a good fit for you, drop in to talk with Dean Shuffelton. (Also on Thursday and Friday.)

SOPHOMORE HAPPY HOUR 4:00-5:00 • SAYLES O50 (CAREER CENTER)
Brainstorm your way to the future at Sophomore Happy Hour. Career advisors will host special office hours to help sophomores explore where they want to go beyond Carleton, and how to get there. Taco bar and beverages will be provided.

THURSDAY, JAN 16

OCS WORLDS FAIR 11:30-1:00 • GREAT HALL
Will you be one of the 70% of Carls who study off-campus? Browse through hundreds of program brochures, talk to other Carls who participated in OCS programs, and get some advice from OCS staff.

“APPLYING AND INTERVIEWING: THE BASICS OF SELF-PRESENTATION” 11:30-1:00 • GREAT HALL
Learning how to write and talk about yourself (your academic work, your volunteer work and/or jobs, your future goals) is essential for scoring amazing travel opportunities, internships, scholarships, and fellowship—and folks from the Career Center, ITS, and Writing Center can teach you how! Hot soup, fresh bread, and brownies served!
