Delve into practical and theoretical aspects of feminist and queer theory while conducting field research in the Netherlands, Germany, the Czech Republic and Poland.

Since 1984, the Women’s and Gender Studies in Europe (WGSE) program has offered students a unique opportunity to explore feminist and queer theory in practice across Western and East Central Europe. Interaction with academics, politicians, activists, and homestay hosts in Utrecht, Berlin, Prague and Krakow encourages comparative approaches to independent research projects.

COURSES
• Situated Feminisms: Socio-political Systems and Women’s Lives
• Issues in Feminist Methodologies
• Comparative Feminist Theories
• Independent Study/Field Research

CREDIT
16 semester credits

Learn more at go.carleton.edu/womenseurope
Women’s and Gender Studies in Europe

This unique program examines the trends and dynamics of European social, economic, and political systems as they influence contemporary gender theory, policy, and women’s identities. Students will explore leading theories in women’s and gender studies, and go on to challenge themselves with self-designed independent research projects.

LOCATION
The program visits some of Europe’s most dynamic and historic cities: Utrecht/Amsterdam, the Netherlands; Berlin, Germany; Prague, the Czech Republic; and Krakow, Poland.

COURSES
• Situated Feminisms: Socio-political Systems and Women’s Lives
• Issues in Feminist Methodologies
• Comparative Feminist Theories
• Independent Study/Field Research

LANGUAGE
No prior foreign language experience is required.

ORIENTATION AND NOISE SUMMER SCHOOL
Following an orientation, students participate in a one-week, intensive Network of Interdisciplinary Women’s Studies in Europe (NOISE) summer school program with students and faculty from the European Thematic Network of Women’s Studies (ATHENA).

INDEPENDENT RESEARCH
Participants conduct self-designed research on a topic within the field of women’s and gender studies, such as LGBTQ Resources for Queer Youth Across Europe; Muslim Women’s Issues in Europe; Sex Work and Trafficking; Violence Against Women.

CREDIT
Students enroll in 16 semester credits through Carleton College.

LEADERSHIP
The program is directed by Iveta Jusová, PhD, Professor of Women’s and Gender Studies, Carleton College. Other instructors include lecturers from European universities, leaders of NGOs, politicians, and feminist and queer activists.

FALL SEMESTER
Apply by March 15

Learn more at go.carleton.edu/womenseurope

Antioch Education Abroad is now Carleton Antioch Global Engagement.

Carleton College, one of the nation’s top liberal arts colleges, now operates the long-established global engagement programs previously offered by Antioch Education Abroad. Carleton champions an interdisciplinary, liberal arts approach to learning with the highest commitment to academic excellence.