Carleton-Antioch Global Engagement Programs Withdrawal Policy

The student’s date of withdrawal is considered to be the date when the Carleton-Antioch Global Engagement Programs office or Program Director receives the request to withdraw in writing from the student (either via email, postal mail, or fax). If you withdraw from the program after you confirm your acceptance, you will not receive a full refund. The full withdrawal policy is as follows:

You will be held accountable for any amount forfeited, even if those funds have not yet been forwarded to Carleton College. In the case of program cancellation before departure, all costs paid to Carleton College will be refunded. If the program must be cancelled after it has begun, but before its conclusion, a partial refund may be given, but this is determined on a case by case basis, accounting for factors such as the amount of time spent on-site, transportation used, and the number of credits that students remain eligible to earn. Minor alterations in the program will not result in refunds.
