Welcome to 1st Goodhue!!

Congratulations! You have been placed in Carleton’s inaugural First Year Experience Community! You may have heard that Goodhue is the furthest dorm away from campus, but you should also know that the location of the hall, perched between the beautiful Carleton Arboretum and the Lyman Lakes, is perfect for building great first year relationships. You are all lucky enough to live on the floor with two lounges, one specifically for us and another giant “superlounge” equipped with a ping-pong table, huge TV, and pool tables for the enjoyment of the entire hall. Here is a look at the first floor layout:

As the map points out, we also share the floor with Jake Reilly, who is the professional Area Director for Goodhue and Evans Hall. Additionally, there are laundry rooms, study rooms and a band room in the basement.

About Your RAs!

He loves to watch football, especially when it includes the New England Patriots, and he also utilizes the Arboretum on a regular basis.

She is involved in Women’s Club Ice Hockey, volunteers at Northfield Hospital, and dances in Synchrony II (a large dance group that performs every term). She is considering majoring in Psychology on the Pre-med track. She loves to explore Carleton’s beautiful campus, chat with new people, and throw around a frisbee.
