“I feel I was deliberately ignored or excluded.”

--This was the second most common reason people gave for feeling uncomfortable at Carleton. (See the Campus Climate Report, pg 41, table 12.)

We can improve the climate of our community through simple acts of kindness and appreciation, from individual to individual.

How can you include someone today?