A Resolution Concerning the Voter Identification Amendment to the Minnesota State Constitution

Unanimously passed by the CSA Senate, 9/17/12

Whereas, the CSA Senate is committed to the participation of the Carleton community in the democratic process; and

Whereas, the CSA Senate believes the Minnesota Constitutional Amendment regarding Voter Identification repugns equal participation by all classes, races, and ages of people in elections; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the CSA Senate urges the Carleton community to vote against the amendment to the Minnesota Constitution requiring photographic identification; and
