2014 Annual Meeting, Carleton College, October 10-11, 2014

PROGRAM AT A GLANCE

Friday 10/10/14
8:00-9:00  Continental breakfast (Weitz Center for Creativity, Room 236)
9:00-10:30 Unconference discussion time  (Other unconference sessions TBD)
10:50-12:00  Using Data for the Greater Good, Jake Porway, DataKind (Skinner Memorial Chapel)
12:00-1:30  Lunch with Jake Porway, DataKind (Severance, Great Hall)
only if paid in advance, otherwise lunch on your own
1:30-2:45  Cut to the QUIC: What is the Essence of Quantitative Reasoning and How Can We Assess It? Neil Lutsky, Carleton College (Weitz 236)
2:45-3:15  Coffee Break (Outside Weitz 236)
3:00-4:15  Fun Math is Not an Oxymoron: Quantitative Brain Teasers and Other Unthreatening Ways to Infuse Your Course with Numbers, Kate Follette and Don McCarthy, University of Arizona (Weitz 236)
4:30-5:45  Quantitative Reasoning in the Social Sciences, Diego Mendez-Carbajo, Illinois Wesleyan University (Weitz 236)
6:30-8:00  Dinner (Weitz 236)
8:30-9:30  The Geometry Project, Seymore Schuster (Weitz 236)

Saturday 10/11/14:
8:00-9:00  Continental breakfast (Weitz 236)
9:00-11:00  Role-Playing for Quantitative Literacy, John Curran, Eastern Michigan University (Weitz 236)
11:15-12:30  A Workshop in Five Parts, Milo Schield, Augsburg College (Weitz 236)
12:30-1:45  Lunch (Weitz 236)
2:00-3:15  NNN Board Meeting (Weitz 131)
3:00-3:30  Coffee Break (Outside Weitz 236)
3:30-5:00  AALAC Workshop Progress Reports (Weitz 236)