Who should apply?
The Summer Quantitative Reasoning Institute is a three-week residential summer camp open to current high school sophomores and juniors interested in the social sciences. The Summer Quantitative Reasoning Institute offers four guided research groups; Research Assistants will assist one guided research group for the duration of SQRI. Research Assistants work closely with participants as they learn to identify and use quantitative reasoning skills to make and evaluate arguments while completing a collaborative guided research project and assist SQRI faculty with class activities.

Position Schedule:
- The SQRI Research Assistant Position is full time for the duration of the 3-week pre-college program. Research Assistants will assist one guided research group for the duration of their session.
- Position Dates: July 14 – August 3, a mandatory training will take place on July 14

Benefits of the Position:
This position is paid salaried nonexempt. The total pay for this position will equal $1,320 ($11.00 x 40 hours x 3 weeks). Research Assistants will also have the ability to participate in activities and weekend trips.

Responsible to:
- Faculty Assigned – Al Montero, Mija Van Der Wege, Mitch Radtke
- Al Montero, Director, Summer Quantitative Reasoning Institute
- Katie Lauer, Interim Director, Summer Academic Programs

Qualifications and Requirements:
This position is open to current Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors.
- Applicants must have an interest in working with high school juniors and seniors and possess the ability to help and mentor the students.
- Applicants should model appropriate behavior and time management skills.

Desired Qualifications:
- Prior experience working with Middle or High School students.
- A passion for Carleton and what we can offer each individual student.
- Past experiences at Camps or Pre-college programs.
- Ability to drive a campus vehicle.
Responsibilities:

- Research Assistants work closely with participants as they learn to identify and use quantitative reasoning skills to make and evaluate arguments while completing a collaborative guided research project and assist SQRI faculty with class activities.
- Demonstrate a commitment to maintaining order. Research Assistants are role models for our students, they are responsible for making sure all rules are followed, and they are committed to keep all students safe.
- Facilitate group discussions. To accurately give the students a pre-college experience we must create safe and welcome environments to encourage both academic and personal growth. Research Assistants will be trained on facilitation and may be teamed up with a Dorm Counselor to run evening discussions with small groups of students.
- Assist with and be responsible for following emergency protocols.
